Chapter 1 by Typ0

If anything marks a good gumshoe, besides making sure to get paid up-front, it's understanding human nature. Just like knowing the guilty often return to the scene of their crime, it's accepting the fact that thieves will always steal and killers kill - they can't help it. After all we're creatures of habit, slaves to routine and today was no exception, especially for me - apart from hesitating to delete the contents of my spam folder that is. Of course, I might have said I don't know why I decided to open it in the first place, but the truth is, after another day with an empty inbox, a desperation was setting in and I needed the work, any work, so I did and there it was, among the offers of cheap Viagra and easy sex, the anonymous email that was about to change my life - and save one.
